RESTORATIVE JUSTICE ROUNDTABLE

Have a voice in your community

Dear Colleague

You are invited to share your experiences and learn from your peers at this free restorative justice roundtable in London.

One of the world's leading experts in restorative justice, John McDonald Director of ProActive ReSolutions, will facilitate the roundtable.

Your voice

During the roundtable, you will be invited to share your restorative justice innovations, fears and frustrations in a safe, confidential and respectful environment.

You will also have an opportunity to listen to, discuss and learn from the restorative justice experiences of one of the most experienced and innovative practitioners in the field.

Your facilitator

Your roundtable facilitator, John McDonald, is the Director of ProActive ReSolutions (formerly Transformative Justice Australia).

John was instrumental in bringing restorative justice conferencing to the UK via the Justice Research Consortium's ground breaking research project that was funded by the UK's Ministry of Justice.

He also helped pioneer and develop restorative justice conferencing in Australia, the USA, Canada and Norway.

He has extensive experience in providing restorative justice training, consultation and conferencing in youth and adult justice services and for government departments, diverse community groups, workplaces and research programs.

He has also worked extensively with minority communities.

His expertise has touched the lives of many and his work in restorative justice conferencing has been immortalised by Australia's foremost playwright, David Williamson, in the Jack Manning trilogy.

The trilogy has played to sell out and extended seasons across Australia, with one of the trilogy, A Conversation, playing a sell out season at the Royal Exchange Theatre in Manchester.

We look forward to seeing you at the roundtable.

Kind regards, ProActive Resolutions
